RE: Certification of Delinquent account

Dear Property Owner and District Customer:

Your account with South Durango Sanitation District is seriously delinquent. A copy of the current account status is enclosed. The account includes monthly user fees, penalties and collection costs.

On September 18, 2014 at 6 pm at 175 Mercado Street, Durango, Colorado the Board of Directors of the District will consider a resolution authorizing delinquent accounts, including your account, to be certified to the La Plata County Treasurer to be collected in the same manner as taxes as authorized by C.R.S. § 32-1-1101(1)(e). In addition to the amounts owed to the District, the account will include additional statutory fees of 30% for the Treasurer's collection fee and 1% for the Treasurer's disbursement fee. A copy of the Notice of Hearing as published in the Durango Herald is also enclosed.

These accounts will be certified to the La Plata County Treasurer on October 1, 2014. Accounts brought current before that date will not be certified. Monthly charges will continue to accrue after October 1, 2014 and will be subject to standard penalties and collection charges of the District.
